Catch-up Friday 24 February

Dear Parents and Carers,

Welcome back!

We've had a very exciting start to the term. The children loved cooking their own pancakes on Shrove Tuesday and thoroughly enjoyed the races in the afternoon. They were very skilful 'flipping' their pancakes (a first for many!) and showed super sportsmanship and support to everyone.

It was lovely to welcome so many families at the Library Club on Tuesday too.

New Dates for Family Library:

- Tuesday 21 March
- Tuesday 25 April

World Book Day Reminder– Thursday 2 March

On Monday, please could the children bring in three items that tell us something about character from a favourite book. Then over the week, they will share and discuss them with their class. The aim is for the other children to use deductive and inferential reading skills to guess who the character is and why those items represent and tell us something about the character. The items can be real, photos or drawings.

During the week they will be able to promote and recommend their 'good read' to their class. On Thursday the children are invited to come to school dressed as their focus character and to read an extract from the book their character features in.

Michael Morpurgo LIVE at 10am!

As part of our celebration of books and reading next week, the children in Kingfishers and Swallows will take part in a live webinar with the renowned author Michael Morpurgo.

Strike Action – Wednesday 1 March

You will be aware that strike action is planned by one teaching union. This will impact on Robins class on Wednesday 1st March. The children from Robins should not attend school on that day. We will provide home learning links for the children.

Should there be any updates or changes to this information we will keep you informed.
