Friday 5th May Catch-up

Dear Parents and Carers,

Coronation Celebrations

During Thursday morning all members of the School Council and School House Captains cooked for the whole school creating delicious food for our Coronation Tea Party on Friday afternoon.

What a lovely array of red, white and blue around school today. A fantastic start to the weekend of festivities.

To start the day some children travelled to the Oasis Community Centre in Wisbech to visit some of the older people who take part in the events organised there by Age UK. We met the volunteers and had a lovely time joining in with the games. They really did 'lend a hand' and the children amazed everyone with their knowledge about King Charles III and the royal family.

Unfortunately, as the sun hid and the rain came down, we had to adapt plans and have our Tea Party inside. This didn't dampen our spirits! Looking at us all assembled together it was a wonderful sea of red, white, blue and party clothes, with smiles and friendship to start everyone's coronation weekend.

All the Staff wish you all a happy Bank Holiday weekend and we look forward to seeing you all again on Tuesday 9 May.
